Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Are MBizM training programmes HRD Corp Claimable?

MBizM is a registered HRD Corp training provider. Most of our public training programmes are HRD Corp Claimable Courses, including most Lean Six Sigma certification courses (Yellow Belt, Green Belt, Black Belt, & Master Black Belt) in both classroom and virtual formats, as well as RCA, QIT/QCC 7QC Tools, VSM, and Step Up to Black Belt. A small number of courses (i.e., QFD, QS E3, SATSS, 8D Approach, Kaizen Yellow Belt, Pay per Phase Green Belt, and Green Belt Accelerated (5 Days) - Special Session) are not currently HRD Corp Claimable. Check the HRD Corp tag next to each course in the calendar above, or contact us for the latest claimability status.

What is the difference between Yellow Belt, Green Belt, and Black Belt certification?

Yellow Belt (3 days) provides foundational knowledge of Lean Six Sigma and the DMAIC methodology - suitable for team members and supervisors. Green Belt (5-6 days) builds hands-on project capability for professionals who lead departmental improvement projects. Black Belt (8 days) covers advanced statistical analysis and cross-functional project leadership for delivering high-impact business results. Each level builds on the previous one, though prior certification is not required to enrol in Green Belt or Black Belt programmes.

Do I need prior experience to attend Six Sigma training?

No prior Six Sigma experience is required for the Yellow Belt, Green Belt, Black Belt, or Comprehensive Introduction to Six Sigma (CISS) courses. Green Belt and Black Belt programmes are designed for professionals from any department or industry - no statistical background is required. However, the Master Black Belt programme is the only course with prerequisites: a Black Belt certification, at least 3 years of improvement project experience, and experience deploying the DMAIC methodology.

What certification do participants receive after completing training?

MBizM is accredited by PeopleCert IASSC (International Association for Six Sigma Certification), CSSC (Council for Six Sigma Certification), and ILSSI (International Lean Six Sigma Institute) for internationally recognised Lean Six Sigma certifications. Certification details and exam formats may vary by programme. Please contact us or visit the individual course page for specific certification information.

What is the difference between classroom and virtual training?

Classroom training is conducted face-to-face at our training centre in Petaling Jaya, Selangor, or at a hotel within the Klang Valley. The exact training venue will be communicated to participants approximately two weeks prior to the training commencement. These sessions include hands-on workshops and group exercises. Virtual training is instructor-led via live video, offering the same curriculum and level of interaction, and can be accessed from anywhere. Virtual training is typically priced lower than classroom equivalents

Can MBizM conduct in-house training for my organisation?

Yes. MBizM offers customised in-house training for groups, delivered at your premises or a venue of your choice. In-house programmes can be tailored with case studies and exercises using your organisation's actual processes and data.
Contact us at +603 7873 8485 or visit our website to request a custom training proposal.

Is there a payment plan available for certification programmes?

Yes. MBizM offers staggered payment options for selected certification programmes. The Pay per Phase Green Belt programme (RM5,500 over 5 months) specifically allows participants to pay RM1,100 per DMAIC phase, spread across 5 months. Contact us to discuss flexible payment arrangements for other programmes.

How do I register for a public training programme?

Click on any course name in the website calendar to view full course details and register online. Alternatively, contact us directly at +603 7873 8485 or via WhatsApp. Early registration is recommended as seats are limited and sessions may be rescheduled if minimum participant numbers are not met.
